

INTERNS WANTED

WRITING

Here's your chance to strengthen your résumé and clip file!

Opportunities will include:

- writing and proofreading an alumni magazine,
- creating web content,
- writing press releases, and
- creating text for posters brochures and newsletters.

Applicants must have completed MMC 2100, Writing for Mass Communication, and preferably JOU 3101, Reporting. While journalism students are preferred, all majors are welcome.

Contact: Buffy Lockette
buffy@clas.ufl.edu

WEB

Interested in gaining experience in a variety of computer design applications and building a portfolio of work?

Here's your chance to:

- develop web sites, graphics and Flash animations,
- develop online forms,
- create custom web solutions, and
- develop special projects.

Applicants should be proficient in HTML and CSS. Familiarity with Adobe CS2 is preferred, but we will train the right applicant to use our software.

Contact: Jeff Stevens
jstevens@clas.ufl.edu

GRAPHICS

Build your portfolio, stretch your design muscles, work on real-life projects!

You'll get to:

- photograph campus events,
- illustrate magazine articles, and
- design and produce brochures, posters, postcards and fliers.

Applicants must have strong typography and production skills and be very deadline driven. Familiarity with Adobe CS2 is preferred, but if your design portfolio is strong enough, we will train you on our software.

Contact: Jane Dominguez
jane@clas.ufl.edu

These are unpaid internships, but the hours are flexible and we are supportive of those seeking academic credit.

Please submit a cover letter, résumé and samples of your writing, web or graphic design to the contact listed above.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS & SCIENCES NEWS & PUBLICATIONS OFFICE

2326 Turlington Hall • PO Box 117300 • Gainesville FL 32611-7300 • 352-846-2032