IMAGINING THE LIBRARY BOOKS IN PUBLIC LIFE FROM LATE ANTIQUITY TO THE DIGITAL AGE

Carnegie Libraries: Public Reading for the Reading Public

ABIGAIL VAN SLYCK, CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

27 September, 7 PM Millhopper Branch Alachua County Library

Co-sponsored by the Center for the Humanities and the Public Sphere's Rothman Endowment; University of Florida Libraries; UF CLAS Dean's Office; UF Honors Program; Alachua County Library District; UF France-Florida Research Institute; UF Department of History; UF College of Design, Construction, and Planning; UF Samuel Proctor Oral History Program; UF Levin College of Law. For more information, email humanities-center@ufl.edu.