

THE FLORIDA SEMINAR FOR Teaching on Asia

Academic Year
2010-2011

APPLYING FOR THE FLORIDA SEMINAR FOR TEACHING ON ASIA

Who can apply? Open to middle and high school teachers engaged or interested in incorporating Asia into their curriculum.

Cost? The teacher/school is responsible only for costs related to getting to and from the seminar.

Where? All sessions will be held at the University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida.

When? September 2010 – April 2011. One Saturday a month: For 2010: Sept. 18, Oct. 2, Nov. 6, Dec. 4. For 2011: Jan. 15, Feb. 12, March 19, April 16.

How? Send the attached application form along with a one-page resume, a letter of interest and a letter of recommendation from your administrator to the address listed on the lower right corner of this flyer.

PARTICIPANT COMMITMENT

Complete a 30-hour seminar to take place over eight months in East Asian history, geography, literature, and culture with colleagues and Asian specialists.

Complete an implementation plan for incorporating seminar content and materials into teaching.

Implement appropriate content and materials from the seminar into courses and share acquired knowledge, skills and materials with colleagues.

Participate in follow-up meetings to share experiences in integrating Asian studies into the curriculum.

Assist in evaluating the NCTA program.

PARTICIPANT BENEFITS

- Instruction from experts in areas of Asian studies.
- Graduate Course credit or re-certification credit (where applicable).
- $100 upon completion of seminar series and submission of an implementation plan.
- $100 co-payment for seminar materials.
- A book package on Asia for your school library.
- Ongoing updates on travel and teaching opportunities in Asia.

The seminar is sponsored by the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia (NCTA), a program funded by the Freeman Foundation.

- Colleagues of previous participants and teams from schools are encouraged to apply.
- Middle and high school teachers in all areas of the social studies, literature and art are welcome to apply.

For more information on NCTA, visit www.nctasia.org.

APPLICATION

Complete and return this application, along with specified resume, letter of interest and letter of recommendation, to Pat Bartlett, Teaching on Asia, Asian Studies Program, University of Florida, PO Box 117365, Gainesville FL 32611.

Name: _____

Home Phone: _____ E-mail (required): _____

Home Address: _____

School Name: _____ School Phone: _____

School Address: _____

Teaching position (subject & grade level): _____

Signature: _____

How did you find out about the seminar? _____

We will begin reviewing applications on April 15, 2010, for the UF academic year institute.

Applications must be received no later than August 18, 2010.

Acceptance notification will begin at the end of May 15, 2010, and will be done by post and electronic mail.

UF | UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

To submit your application or request additional information contact:

Pat Bartlett, Teaching on Asia

University of Florida Asian Studies Program

PO Box 117365

Gainesville FL 32611

Phone: 352-392-2464

Fax: 352-846-2502

Email: patbart@ufl.edu

Web: www.clas.ufl.edu/asian