

Tales of the Heike

RECITAL & LECTURE ON THE JAPANESE TRADITION

DECEMBER 1
5:30–7:30 PM
PUGH 170

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Featuring

a performance and lecture by

Yoko Hiraoka, a senior master

performer of Biwa, Koto,

Shamisen and Jiuta voice, and a native of Kyoto, Japan. She will play the five-string biwa, a lute-like instrument that dates back to medieval times. Biwa tradition is story-telling set to music, with musical interludes and vocal accompaniment.

