

STARS SHINE ON EAST GAINESVILLE

AN EVENING CELEBRATING ART, SCIENCE & CULTURE

8 OCTOBER 2010
6:30-9:30PM

6:30 PM AT THE NORTHEAST POOL
Gainesville Gaviatas Synchronized Swimming:
The Art & Science of Conservation of Motion

FOLLOWING AT THE MLK CENTER
Jorge Variego, Music From Space:
Black Holes, Planets, Light Waves

AND

NASA Activity Table

Howard Bishop Symphonic Winds

EGL Summer Camp Astro-Art Exhibit

Telescope Observations

ASTREC Small Satellite Design

Art Activities

Cotton Club Music For All Table

Pizza & Soda For Sale

UF

Funded By: The National Science Foundation through a grant to Stephen Eikenberry and Reba Bandyopadhyay in the Department of Astronomy, and the NASA Florida Space Grant Consortium. Sponsored By: University of Florida Music and Arts for Science, ASTREC, Gainesville Gaviatas, UF School of Music: College of Fine Arts, and Cotton Club. Partnering With: Santa Fe College East Gainesville Initiative, and the Alachua Astronomy Club. Contact Information: Veronica Donoso, 392-5089 x215, donoso@astro.ufl.edu; Stephen Eikenberry, 392-2052 x260, eikenberry@astro.ufl.edu; Vivian Filer, 376-9956, vifiler@bellsouth.net; Donna Isaacs, 273-1172, dsaacs@ufl.edu; Karen Cole Smith, 395-5767. The school board of Alachua County is not a sponsor of this event.
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

